

I listen to K-LOVE daily because it is positive and encouraging. The message and music are very uplifting and supportive of my beliefs. Our communities needs this type of programming as an alternative to the normal offerings.